I thought I'd give the women props for getting another one. A pretty good streak the Ladies have now. Too bad they have MTSU next though.

All this is doing is buying Tina another year.

Is that worth it?

And no, I don't believe RV will necessarily fire her if she doesn't reach the NCAA tournament. As a matter of fact, what he said was that she had to go to the tournament to get a 3-year extension. He didn't say for sure, that she would be canned if she had a "good" season.

But what does a good season involve? I could see a 20 win campaign with no conference title as a good season, but realistically at this point .500 would be about the best they could do. That would be a 10-8 conference mark(15-15 overall) - which would be "good", but not enough with the short leash she's on IMHO.
