
Former UNT Player becomes PA ISD AD Director

Andre Boutee resigned his post as head basketball coach at Beaumont Ozen High to take over as Athletic Director of the Port Arthur ISD.

With Port Arthur being the home town of Todd Dodge maybe we can expect more kids directed up to denton.

Congrats to Andre. He's been a real nice former player "success story."

A basketball coach becomes AD? Sounds good to me.

The last time NT played at Lamar, Boutte was the halftime guest. He was wearing Mean Green gear, and mentioned he wanted his children to go here.
