Transfer news was the buzz at last weekend's Dallas Mustangs event at Ennis High.

The biggest fish on the move are soon to be #1 ranked freshman, 6-3 Jelon Hornbeak who will lace 'em up for Arlington Grace Prep next year after starring for Mansfield Timberview this year. Joining Hornbeak in the coup of the year for the new recruiting man of Texas, Grace Prep head coach Ray Forsett will be freshman, 6-9 Isaiah Austin. Austin will leave Mansfield Legacy. Others names being tossed about with Grace Prep are top 10 freshman Nick Banyard (likely), #1 sophomore Jamal Branch (unlikely).

6-5 former Dallas Skyline star Kris Gulley is enrolled at Dallas Madison. Chalk up 4 top 100 seniors for Madison in the Flentroy cousins, Gulley, and rapid riser, 6-6 post Tevin Harris. Pencil them in as a top 5 team regardless of class, they'd grab a spot with Houston Yates, Lancaster, Dallas Madison, DeSoto, Dallas Lincoln and Converse Wagner.

The rich always seem to get richer, loaded Lancaster will add 6-6 2012 post Kelvin Downs a young big with plenty of upside who is transferring from Arlington Seguin. With studs Tre Lynch and John Bohannon, and Michale Kyser rounding into shape, the Tigers look mighty potent.
