I'm thinking 4-8. I hope that's not enough to save Dodge's job, but it might be.

No one would ever accuse me of not being patient with a coach. I'm sure alot of folks think I'm a borderline sunshine pumper, but even 4 wins(as big a jump as that is) still would only give him 7 in three seasons. I don't know....that's alot to ask. I guess it depends on how it all plays out. Four W's and mostly competiticve losses might sit okay with me I suppose.
