
NT cruises past UALR

Posted by CMJ - 2010/02/20 17:35

The first few minutes were a struggle, but with the game tied at 25, our boys just blew UALR away. Even more impressive beacuse Big George was in foul trouble and sat a large potion of the half. Mangrum was huge off the bench - if he can keep this up our bench is really dangerous. Alzee looked good too.

Tramiel was a hoss down low, and then Odie had a big 2nd half. Josh played great as usual, and Tristan had some memorable plays. Really falling in love with this team right now.

Crowd looked good on TV. Hope we have even more for ULL. We are now in sole possession of 1st(granted we were the 1st game of the day and in a few hours we won't be, but don't ruin it!)

=====