
Mean Green Season Recap Part FOUR

Great Stuff CMJ ---- Makes me ready for Midnight Madness, or whatever it is that we do.

These articles really have shown the up and down of it all. It was up and down all season, making us all feel uneasy about the team because we just were never quite sure what we would see on the court. In the end I know we were all pretty dang proud.

Thanks...it really was a wonderful season. In some ways it was more exciting because there were so many scares involved, so it made the end of year charge that much more dramatic.

(I hope SUMG noticed I used his coined term for our recruits)

Whoops...just noticed I didn't capitalize Harold's last name in the last paragraph.

EDIT: Thanks for fixing it.
